Details as required in Section Three (Persecution)

I was arrested in Jersey, Channel Islands, on January the 16th, 1944, and lodged in the local prison until March the 1st, 1944, when I was transported to a prison at Saint Lo, in France; after some ten days I was transferred to a prison at Fort Villeneuve, Seine-et-Oise. I was there 4 months then I was shifted to Frense Prison near Paris, and I was there until the 11th of August, 1944, when I was moved to Buchenwald arriving there on the 20th August, 1944. I was a prisoner in Buchenwald until the 8th January, 1945, when I was transferred to Laufen, O.B.B. and was there until the 19th July, 1945.

Whilst at Fort Villeneuve I suffered from a septic throat and was ill for 5 weeks, losing considerable weight. The treatment at Frense was very bad, but at Buchenwald was much worse, with very little food. Here I had very bad dysentery, which made me very weak, so bad that I could not walk very well and coming back from a (commando) one evening I slipped and fell and was shot at by the guard: luckily he missed me by a few inches. On another occasion I was not quick enough after being shouted at by a young S.S. guard who hit me in the mouth with the butt end of his rifle and broke 5 of my teeth off down to the gums. There is much to tell about Buchenwald, which would run into many pages. However, by the Underground movement (thanks to Yoe Thomas) I got a letter out to my son at Laufen who made application to one of the protecting powers and I arrived in Laufen on the 10th January, 1945.

I was arrested in Jersey supposedly for repairing radio, but this was not the true fact. I had made Micro photographs of Ordnance Survey Maps which were handed to me by Major Morrison. These maps showed all the gun positions and fortifications up to that time erected by the Germans. These Micro photographs were then given to Centenier Garden who was responsible for their safe arrival in France. In view of the serious nature of this I allowed the radio and other charges to stand, and was indeed lucky to get away with it, as regards my financial losses I had left a wife and three children and my Mother-in-Law who was living with us to live on 25/per week, which was what my firm allowed me. My wife had to sell our bedroom furniture and most of my tools; some £250 of savings were spent to pay the rent and to live.
