Dear Sir

I was a member of the Island Police Force at the time of the German Occupation of Guernsey. We were forbidden to listen to English broadcasts ~~in~~ all sets were ordered to be handed in. In spite of this many sets were retained, and Col Bateman was one of our favourites. We did our best to follow his instructions and carried out as much sabotage as we could.

In consequence of this two of our members were caught & couldn't keep what they knew to themselves, so 18 of us were arrested and after a so called open trial, received various prison sentences.

I got 18 months and was taken via Jersey to Granville and on to La Maison D'arrest at Caen from there I was sent to Haut Blos at Ilois, after some time I was transferred to Clavevaux Central Prison. From there I was transferred to Shalon sur marne & from there to Compeigne & then on to the British camp at St Dennis. On arrival at St Dennis I had a medical & was examined by a British Major, (also an internee,) who when he saw the condition I was in, ordered that I should receive a Red Cross invalid parcel in addition to my ordinary weekly R.C. parcel.

I am afraid that after all these years, I am unable to remember dates. My memory is not too good, but I got away from St Dennis in 1944 and spent a month or so in Paris without any money. ^{before} I was sent back to England by Mr. Duff Cooper arrived Leyden & sent to the rest centre at Bloomsbury Square and then on to Glasgow where I got a job with Royal Ordnance at Barfillan Drive, where I worked as a machine turner until my return to Guernsey after liberation

I am at present under a Doctor having spent several weeks in hospital both in Guernsey & in London having treatment for Rheumatoid Arthritis which I feel was brought on by the conditions & treatment we recieved under the Germans, and the filthy French house infested & bug ridden Prisons we were kept in.

Yours.

Still alive thanks to the British red cross.

A L. Gardif.
